INTRODUCTION.

The changes in our laws are rapid and unceasing, So rapid, indeed, are they as to justify the complaint, by both Bench and Bar, that before one enactment is settled by judicial interpretation, it is amended or swept away by new legislation at the hands of some aspirant for fame who seeks to place on the statute book the record of his zeal for his country. Festina lente, evidently, has not been chosen as a guiding principle in this age of unceasing activity.

Some restriction was placed upon legislation affecting real estate, by the Legislature referring real estate bills to the Judges, before they were submitted to the House for the third reading. In this way many bills never emerged from their embryo state.

It has been suggested, whether it would not be wise to refer all acts, affecting the administration of justice or vested rights, to a commission composed of the best legal talent, whose duty it would be, carefully to examine the bills, and report to the House as to the advisability of the proposed legislation. By this it has been thought much crude legislation would be prevented, and greater uniformity secured.

The Goodhue Will Act, where the Legislature endeavoured to make a new will, after the testator's death, most clearly illustrates hasty and ill-digested legislation.

In reference to this Act, we may quote the caustic language of the learned President of the Court of Error and Appeal, in his most exhaustive judgment in re Goodhue, 19 Gr. That learned Judge admits the power of the Legislature to trespass upon private rights, and interfere with the "last will" even when clearly expressed; but adds, "It would be indecorous to express what it would be fitting for a Court to express, if such changes had been procured in the testator's lifetime, by or through any fraud or imposition upon him. It is now, if a valid Act, the Act of the highest authority, an Act of our Legislature, which has received the assent of the head of the Local Executive, on behalf of the Governor General. It cannot, however, be disrespectful to quote the language of Lord Tenterden: 'It is said, the last will of a party is to be favorably construed, because the testator is inops consilii. That we cannot say of the Legislature, but we may say that it is magnas inter opes inops.'" "

Having thus indicated the opinion and feeling prevalent in the profession, it is our duty rather to note the changes as they have been made, than to comment on their nature or effect. We may, however, be allowed to call the attention of the students, and such of the profession, as may read this introduction, and among whom, no doubt, are many of our future legislators, to the warning (quoted also in the above judgment) given by His Majesty Charles II., “when at the close of the session, 13th Charles II. 1661, his Majesty observed on the unusual number of private bills, ‘But, I pray you, let this be done very rarely hereafter. The good old rules of law are the best rules.’”

ELECTION LAW.—Among the changes in the laws, those that most mark changes in public opinion, are the amendments of the election law. It was Macaulay, we think, who said, that nations have periodical fits of virtue, when culprits suffer the extremest penalties, and that after a time justice seems satiated, when the nation relapses into her normal lethargic condition. This may be, because a nation is slowly moved, and it is not until the gathering mass of corruption threatens to extinguish its very life, that it frees itself by a sudden outburst that, like all violent action, is productive of harm, as well as of good. Be this as it may, it would seem as if political corruption had lately been sweeping over the world like a wave, from the effects of which our Dominion has not escaped.

The people, at last awakened to a sense of the danger, demanded, and the legislators answering to the demand, provided severe punishment for the gross crimes of political bribery and corruption. It would also seem as if the fit of virtue had passed away, for we find our legislators now interfering to relieve from the penalties those who had transgressed the provisions of the Acts passed by the same Assembly.

These changes in the law have given our Judges increased labor, and we hope have not been without good effect upon the public mind.

INCOME FRANCHISE has been at last granted, 37 Vic. cap. III. Ontario, acknowledging the principle, that intellect, and not money, is the true test of greatness. Voting by Ballot was introduced with satisfactory results by 37 Vic. cap 5 Ontario. Marriage Laws were changed by 37 and 39 Vic. The Administration of Justice Act has been amended by 37 Vic. ; re-amended by 38 Vic. Ont ; and probably will be changed from session to session, for some time to come. The changes, so far, have generally met with the approval of the profession ; but the powers of transferring cases to, and having accounts taken by, the Court of Chancery, do not seem well considered. In Williams v. Williams, the Hon. Mr. Justice Strong made a decree or order at Nisi Prius, transferring the case to the Court of Chancery, and directing accounts to be taken. By the reported case of Paterson v. Stroud, 22 Gr. 213, we find that the Court of Chancery refused to enforce a similar decree, holding that the Courts of Law had only power, either to transfer the case, or to order the accounts to be taken by the Master, but not both. It is suggested that this collision between the Courts of Law and Equity will disappear, when the practice of the two Courts has been assimilated, so as to be similar to the practice in the English Courts, under the Judicature Acts.

THE COURT OF ERROR AND APPEAL.—By the Administration Act of 1874, the new Court of Error and Appeal (as it is commonly called) was created. Three additional Judges were appointed, taking from the Toronto Bar one of its most popular leaders, C. S. Patterson, Esq., Q. C., and bringing from the “Ambitious Little City,” two men of solid worth, G. W. Burton, Esq., Q. C., and W. Proudfoot, Esq., Q. C., the latter of whom re-placed the Hon. Vice Chancellor Strong, who was elevated to a Justiceship of the Court of Error and Appeal. Although there was some difference of opinion, as to the wisdom of appointing new men to a position superior to that occupied by the other Judges, yet the Court has been, and remains deservedly in popular favour, its members reflecting as much honour upon the position, as the position upon them.

THE SUPREME COURT OF CANADA, and the EXCHEQUER COURT OF CANADA, established by 38 Vic. cap. II., mark the growth of our Dominion, and complete the machinery for the working out of Local affairs within our own boundaries. The old love of our mother land, the patriotic feeling which has ever animated Canadians has not yet died away, and we trust never will; and although the growth of our country, and the multiplicity of our business operations, may call more and more for home institutions, yet Canada, we believe, will ever be proud to deem herself a loyal child of a royal parentage. In evidence of this may be noted the almost universal satisfaction, when the news was received of the disallowance of that part of the Supreme Court Act, which assumed to take away the right of appeal to England, a right that probably will be little invoked, and of little practical value, save as a link in the chain which connects us with our mother country. The establishment of this Court removed from the Queen's Bench the Hon. Chief Justice Richards, and from the Court of Error and Appeal, the Hon. Mr. Justice Strong. To fill these vacancies, the ranks of the profession were again thinned by the elevation to the Chief Justiceship of R. A. Harrison, Esq., Q.C., and, to the Justiceship of the Court of Error and Appeal, of Thomas Moss, Esq., Q.C., leaders respectively at the Bar of the Courts of Law and Equity. The regret with which the profession took leave of these gentlemen is the best evidence of the esteem in which they were held, and the satisfaction which their administration of justice has given since their elevation to the Bench, leaves no doubt of the wisdom of their appointment.

The separation of the sittings of the Courts of Assize and Nisi Prius, from the Court of Oyer and Terminer and General Gaol Delivery, has expedited the transaction of business in the Courts, and proved a great saving of time, trouble, and expense to the suitors.

The late Rule of Court providing that remanets should stand first on the list for trial at the ensuing Assizes without re-entry, and without new notice, unless notice of trial be countermanded, has also removed an evil much dreaded and serious in its consequences. The result of the above changes has been, to clear the Assize list of all old cases ; and the further provision allowing the holding of the Assize Court during Term, has had the effect of practically clearing the list of remanets altogether. The convenience of the public and the profession has also been studied, in the fixing of a certain number of cases each day as a peremptory list to be disposed of, if time permitted. Thus the attorneys have some idea when to be prepared for trial, and much expense has been saved to the litigants.

THE COUNTY COURTS have not been overlooked in the general changes and amendments. The Judges have been empowered to hold Courts in Counties other than their own, a provision which will, probably to some extent, equalize the labors of the different Judges. So soon as the Lieutenant Governor shall divide the Province into districts for such purpose, the County Court Judges in such districts are to hold the several Courts in the district in rotation.

THE DIVISION COURTS have had their jurisdiction enlarged, so as to give them power to issue Commissions to take evidence out of the Province ; also, to try suits where the balance of account does not exceed $100, and the original account is not more than $400, instead of $200 as theretofore. This provision does away with the oppressive suits brought in the County Court for trifling sums, where the plaintiff was resident out of the Province, on the ground that a commission was necessary, in which actions the costs were often double and treble the debt. The Act provides that no costs other than Division Court costs can for the future be obtained in such cases.

The law as to attachment of debts in this Court has been amended so as to secure to the mechanic an exemption of his wages, up to $25, from the operation of the Garnishee Act, thus relieving him from what was a very oppressive law, which enabled creditors to step in on a Saturday, and take away from the struggling artisan the wages which he needed to buy his children bread.

The Act to amend the law respecting the sale of fermented or spirituous liquors, is the outgrowth of public sentiment which appears to be alive to the imminent danger in which our country is placed by the rapid increase of intemperance. The placing of the power to limit the number of licenses in the hands of Commissioners, appointed by the Government, is a step in the right direction; and if the Commissioners are prepared to do their duty, will do much to check the evil complained of.

We have thus generally indicated some of the changes that have taken place in the laws, since the publication of our last edition. We have not attempted to refer to all, for, to the patient and laborious student, the books are open, and he will avail himself of the law as written; while to others we do not desire to attempt more than, if possible, to suggest that changes are daily taking place which will soon leave him behind in information and knowledge, unless he is prepared assiduously, and it may be with wearied steps, to follow the paths indicated by those who are the leaders of thought, as well as of action.

We submit the present edition of our Law List to our patrons, hoping it may prove of service to them, commensurate to the labor and anxiety that have been expended in its preparation,

By a recent statute, issues of fact, depending in the Superior Courts of Law for trial without a Jury, may be entered for trial at any sitting of this Court held for the hearing of causes at the county town where the venue is laid.

This Court sits regularly every Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday throughout the year, and on the remaining days of each week when necessary to dispose of the business, except during the regular vacations, when the Court only hears motions for, or to dissolve injunctions.

There are two regular sittings of the Court for the examination of witnesses and hearing of causes in each year, at Toronto and on Circuit, at times arranged by the Judges.

The duties of the Commissioners are, to determine claims to lands in the Province of Ontario, for which no patent has issued from the Crown in favor of the proper claimants, whether as heirs, devisees, or assignees. Sittings at Toronto, the first Monday in January and July, in each year.

Controverted Elections Court.

The Judges of the Court of Appeal and of the Superior Courts of Law and Equity meet annually in Michaelmas Term, and severally select, by a majority of votes, a Judge of their respective Courts to be placed on the rota for the trial of election petitions. The Judges so selected preside singly at such trials. In the case of death or illness of a Judge so chosen, the Court of which he is a member meet and elect another Judge. In cases referring to the Dominion Parliament, appeals lie to the Supreme Court at Ottawa. In those relating to the Legislature of Ontario, to the Court of Error and Appeal of that Province.

County Courts.

These Courts are Courts of Record, and are presided over by a resident Judge in each county, being a Barrister of at least five years' standing, assisted in some counties by a Deputy or Junior Judge, Their jurisdiction is similar to that of the Queen's Bench, and extends to all personal actions where the debt or damages claimed do not exceed £50; and to all suits relating to debt, covenant, or contract, when the amount is ascertained by the acts of the parties or signature of the defendant to £100 and to all bail bonds and recognizances of bail given in the County Court to any amount, but not to cases involving the title to lands, validity of wills, or actions for libel, slander, crim. con. or seduction, with a great variety of judicial duties incident to the office of the Judges imposed by numerous statutes, Dominion and Provincial. Appeals are allowed to the Courts of Queen's Bench or Common Pleas.

Courts of General Sessions.

The County Judge in each County holds a sitting of his Court and a Court of General Sessions half-yearly, on the second Tuesday in June and December, except in the County of York, in which County such Court is held four times in each year, commencing on the second Tuesday in March, May, September, and December, for the trial of cases of felony and misdemeanor, and for the decision of appeals from the summary convictions of Magistrates, but treason and capital felonies are exempted from their jurisdiction. The Judge may also, in his discretion, hold additional sittings at such times as may be deemed expedient to expedite business, but only for the trial of issues of fact without a jury.

County Judges' Criminal Court.

This Court has a general jurisdiction in cases of felony and misdemeanor (except capital felonies). Persons committed to jail for trial, on charge of being guilty of any offence for which they may be tried at a Court of General Sessions, may, with their own consent, and subject to the provisions of the Act in that behalf, be forthwith tried by the Judge of the County Court and General Sessions without a jury, and if convicted be sentenced by the said Judge; and the Judge sitting on any such trial for all the purposes thereof, is constituted a Court of Record, and the record in any such case shall be filed among the records of the Court of General Sessions last mentioned.

Courts of Revision.

The County Judges hold annually Courts of Final Revision of the Assessment Rolls of each municipality, being in the light of Courts of Appeal from the first Court of Revision held by the municipality; and also Courts for the Revision of the Voters' Lists, being equivalent to the Courts held by Revising Barristers in England.

Insolvent Debtors' Courts.

These Courts, which have reference to traders only, are regulated by the Act known as "The Insolvent Act of 1875," which consolidated and assimilated the practice in Bankruptcy and Insolvency in the several Provinces of the Dominion. Under it the Judge of each County exercises the more important powers in relation to the issue of Attachments against the estates of Insolvents, the examination and discharge of Insolvents, and the distribution of their estates. The County Judges in the several counties preside, and official assignees are nominated by the Governor-in-Council and are officers of the Court having jurisdiction in the County or District for which they are appointed.

There are four terms, commencing on the first Monday in January, April, July, and October, and ending on the Saturday of the same week.

Division Courts.

These Courts are held in different places in each county for the summary disposal of cases by the Presiding Judge, being the County Judge or his Deputy, or any Barrister appointed to hold the same; but a jury of five persons may be demanded in certain cases. Their jurisdiction extends to actions of debt or contract amounting to $100; injuries or torts to personal chattels amounting to $40; and personal actions to that amount, if not excepted from their jurisdiction; but not to actions for gambling debts, liquors drunk in a tavern, or notes of hand given therefor, ejectment, title to land, &c., or any toll, custom or franchise, will or settlement, malicious prosecution, libel, slander, crim. con., seduction or breach of promise, or actions against a J. The Law Society of Upper Canada.

The Law Society was first established in 1797, by the Act 37 Geo. III. c. 13, which enabled the then practitioners of the law to form themselves into a society and make rules for its government. By the Act of 1822, 2 Geo. IV. c. 5, "The Treasurer and Benchers of the Law Society" were formally incorporated; and under these and other statutes the Society has continued to be governed by a Board of Benchers, in the same manner as the various Law Societies of England. By the Act 34 Vic. c. 15, the Benchers theretofore appointed from time to time by their own body, are made, exclusive of ex officio members, elective by the Bar, the ex officio consisting of the Attorney-General for the time being, and all members of the Bar of Ontario who have at any time held the office of Attorney or Solicitor General of the former province of Upper Canada, and any retired Judge of the Superior Courts of Law or Equity of Ontario; the elective, thirty in number, being chosen by ballot, for a term of five years, by the members of the Bar, in manner prescribed by the Act. Vacancies during the term to be filled by the remaining Benchers. The Judges of the Superior Courts are Visitors of the Society, and on the first day of Easter Term, annually, the Benchers appoint one of their body to be Treasurer, who is also President of the Society. The Benchers sit in convocation every term for the call of Barristers, the admission of Attorneys and Solicitors to practice, and of Students to enter the Society, the fees paid by whom form the revenue of the Society. Osgoode Hall, appropriately named after the first Chief Justice, is the Ontario "Inn of Court," or head-quarters of the Society, in which is provided accommodation for the Courts of Equity, and for the sittings in term of the Superior Courts; with a valuable and extensive library.
